PROCEEDINGS

The Ninety-First Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association met with the Wake Chapel Baptist Church, Millbrook, North Carolina, August 15th and 16th, 1957. The Reverend B. H. Closs was the host minister.

The Session opened with singing led by the Reverend C. H. Heath, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arm." The Reverend Morgan read the 24th Psalm for our Scripture lesson. The Reverend Walton offered the prayer. "Tis the Promise of God" closed the devotionals.

The Reverend B. H. Closs made brief words of welcome. He stated that Wake Chapel had gone all out for the comfort of this body, and as pastor he wanted the Association to enjoy themselves. The sacrifices of the church would make it possible for the body to be enriched and thereby making the lives of all the members of the Association better. The Response was made by Dr. C. E. Askew.

The next item to claim our attention was the discussion of the theme led by the Reverend T. A. Watkins. The theme was "The Christian Church and Some Present Day Problems." The speaker stated that man is so designed by his Creator to constantly meet problems. This is a normal course of life. It is the place of Christianity and the Christian Church to help man overcome his problems. It is through problems man is brought closer to God. After a general discussion on the Theme, Reverend Watkins suggested that he would treat the theme under three heads: 1 The Problem of Human Existance; 2. The Problem of Human Relationship; 3. The Problem of Human Destiny.

Brother Watkins pointed out that as human beings, we face a big problem of earning a living. We are living in an age of "Go Getters." We should learn how to give and take." The speaker used the illustration of the Rich Farmer who tore down old barns to build new ones. One big problem we face is where does my share begin and where does God's share begin? Reverend Watkins brought us a very penetrating message.

A song, "Blessed Assurance,"followed next by the choir. The Reverend A. A. Anderson and Dr. J. D. Roberts were asked to accompany the Reverend C. R. Trotter who was scheduled to bring the message. The presentation of the speaker was made by Dr. Roberts. Reverend Trotter came forward and announced his subject: "The Church Speaks to the Times." In his introduction, the speaker recognized the fact that this was the Ninety-First Session of this body. He said: "For almost a century this Association has been sending out rays of truth and beauty in our bounds. The speaker gave a brief background of the situation in the Corinthian Church, as far as its composition was concerned, and the problem of eating meat that had been sacrificed to idols.

The speaker summed his message up under three heads: 1. The Church finds itself in a world out of Balance. This is true as far as human relations are concerned. Every force of nature seem to work with God, but Man seems not to work with Him. We must get the right focus to be used in God's program. "There must be proper relationship between the head and heart." Many people are letting their heads run away with their hearts.

The speaker mentioned some problems which are disturbing the world. The problem of Production and Distribution. the problem of Governmental regimentation, and the problem of racial tension.

Finally said the speaker, in the face of great problems the church must be the first to speak. The Church must prick the dull conscience of men; the church must set the hearts of men right. Reverend Trotter brought to the body a very thoughtful message.

The morning offering was lifted by Deacon Aikens and Deacon Wilder.

Our visitors were presented to the Association. Dr. Grady Davis presented Reverend A. L. West, who pastored Union Grove for a short time, but he is at present studying at Boston University. The Reverend Aaron Johnson was presented also.

Our morning session closed with the selection of "What A Friend."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The evening devotionals were conducted by the Reverend Millard Jones. He led in singing "Take the Name of Jesus with You." A portion of the 13th Chapter of 1st Corinthian was read by Reverend Jones. Reverend W. A. Morgan offered the prayer. "More Love To Thee O Christ" was sung. A few minutes were devoted to expressions from the various delegates.

Reverend Watkins again came before the body and discussed the Problem of Human Relationships. He emphasized racial tension, but this must be solved, and, the only way it can be solved is through Christ. Dr. Askew along with several others expressed personally their thanks to Reverend Watkins for such a thoughtful presentation.

The Vice Moderator presided and presented the Reverend Stokes who came forward and gave his Annual Message. Please note Recommendation. A motion prevailed that the address be placed in the hands of a Committee, composed of Reverends T. A. Watkins, U. G. Jones and R. D. Wilder. They reported that the Address be printed. This passed.

We had other reports. Reverend C. C. Jones made the report from the Lott Carey Convention which was held in the city of Winston-Salem. Reverend Jones emphasized two things that took place at the convention. He said the convention had a clinic on voting and it stressed the issue of reaching the rural churches.

We had reports from the Treasurer and the Auditor, both were adopted. After these reports, we had the report of the Committee on Organization. This report was adopted with all officers elected for another year.

Remarks were made by Brothers Haskins and Jones of Wilson. The Benediction was pronounced by Reverend B. F. Auston.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We realize that we are living in a changing society, and that Education becomes more necessary for the individual. Every child not only has a right to be Educated but along with that right he has a responsibility to God and his fellowmen. Education is the necessary vehicle to reveal that responsibility to the child.

We hold, therefore, that it remains the responsibility of the church, God's first agent at work in the world to promote His Will, to uphold the right of every child to obtain the best education possible. It is the responsibility of the church to keep a close watch on society and be the first to raise a voice when the right of any individual is endangered.

We, Your Committee on Education, recommend the following:

1. Continue to endorse wholeheartedly the Supreme Court's Decision outlawing segregation in the Public Schools.

2. We recommend that we support the Moderator's recommendation to support Shaw University to the strength of our ability, and to ever strive to keep going a Christian College to train our youth.

3. We recommend Article 12 of the Moderator's Recommendation:
"That the pastors and churches strive to continue to conduct a Daily Vacation School during each year at their churches."

4. We recommend Article 13 of the Address: That we support Leadership Training Courses.

5. We recommend Article 14, of the Address: "That we help deserving members of this Association who need aid to study at Shaw University School of Religion."

Respectfully Submitted:
Miss V. G. Rogers, Chairman
Mr. Herman Dunn
Mr. Theodore Chavis
Mrs. Gladys Laws Smith
Mr. Longworth Whitaker
H. P. Dunbar, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON MODERATOR'S ADDRESS

We, Your Committee on Moderator's Address, wish to make the following Report:

We have carefully taken under consideration the Moderator's Address and have found the message very inspiring and far reaching. It is much needed in our times, therefore, we your committee recommend that the Moderator's Address be adopted in its entirety.

Respectfully Submitted:
Rev. T. A. Watkins, Chairman
Deacon U. G. Jones
Deacon R. D. Wilder

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all Christians strive to obtain more of the riches of God's Grace through daily Bible study and prayer.

2. That winning souls to Christ, and a life consecrated and dedicated to His service will be the ceaseless practice of the church.

3. The pastor will stress, or make available to his church members a training course that will teach the Baptist church covenant and urge its practice.

4. That the officials and Executive Board members of the Wake County Sunday School and B. T. U. conventions; the Wake County Missionary Union; the Wake Ministers and Deacons Union; the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Union of Wake County; the Woman's Auxiliary to the Wake Association and the Executive Board of the Wake Association, all will meet at an appointed place within the next sixty days, work out and unite methods for one Leadership Training Program within the bounds of this Association.

5. Shaw University is teaching courses to help the pastors and all members of the church, we urge you therefore, Brethren, to raise more money in your churches for Mission and Christian Education, then send those deserving persons of our churches who want training and will go to Shaw for instruction in broader ways.

6. That the church will teach its membership to purchase homes, live more economically, and ever strive to be law abiding citizens.

7. The churches of this body are largely rural, the pastor is not there each Sunday in the month, in order to stimulate more interest and realize more money for the objectives and the expanding problem of this Association, where it is workable, a "$1.00 Club," be organized in each church. Appoint a leader of the movement, with committee to help, and urge all church members to join the Club. Let the campaign for joining cover a period and break up the payments of the dollar into small parts within the ability of all the church members.

8. God is not pleased at the commercial practices on Sunday at the meeting place of our great Wake County Sunday School Convention. I pray that something may be done to avoid that practice even if the time of meeting has to be changed from Sunday to another day.

9. Let us support Shaw University to the strength of our ability and earnestly strive to ever keep going a Christian College to train our youth.

10. The Woman's Auxiliary is doing a good work in reaching back to the local church through the mission circle. May I urge each pastor and official staff of each church to see that a mission circle is in your church and at work. Then represent into the Woman's Auxiliary of this Association. To encourage the Mission Circle, let the local church honor them by giving full credit to the circles for all money that the members pay in for missions and Christian Education.

11. That this Body, and all Christians, in these perilious times will exercise steadfast faith in Jesus Christ, pray earnestly and stay humbly before the Almighty God for Divine guidance in all things. This will solve many problems.

12. That the pastors and churches strive to conduct a Daily Vacation Bible School during each year at their church.

13 The Leadership Training Institute conducted by your Association since the last meeting, in only three areas of the Association, namely: Riley Hill, Oberlin (West Raleigh), and Holly Springs, greatly helped the large attendance. I urge therefore, the continuance of the long range course with a faculty to instruct separately, the officials and all other workers in the Church.

14. To help deserving members of this Association, who need aid to study at Shaw University School of Religion, I recommend that $250.00 be ear-marked for that purpose.

15. That the payment of $1.00 per year for Missions and Christian Education, by each member of every church of this Association be regularly stressed by the pastors, deacons and all concerned so that the Lord's work may go forward more progressively through your Association.

16. That all Auxiliary bodies of this Association submit a full written report at each annual session of this Association.

17. That we meet in Extra Session and that the Committee on place of meeting will recommend a church for that meeting if there is one inviting the Association.

18. In order to more fully understand each other and the program of the Association, we therefore, kindly ask your approval of calling a special conference meeting, of all pastors, ministers and deacons and all other interested laymen and mission sisters to be held at the Bethlehem Baptist Church, the Fifth Saturday in September, 1957 at 11:00 A.M. That being a part of the Ministers and Deacons Union program that day.

(b) That each church will send its pastor and a delegation along with him, probably two deacons and a sister, to that conference, to get information and inspection.

19. That each individual church member, the church, and the Association, increase our giving of money for State, and Foreign Missions, Christian Education and all the supported objectives of this Association to strengthen the forces of God's Kingdom.

20. That this Body represent into the Lott Carey Convention this year in Orange, New Jersey by delegation. That the delegate take advantage of the special bus rates offered through the office of Dr. O. L. Sherrill, and all others who may find it convenient to do so.

Respectfully Submitted:
Geo. S. Stokes

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Moderator:

We, your Committee on Resolutions beg to submit the following report:

I. That Whereas Race Relations have reached the point they are threatening the peace and harmony of every group and the problem can no longer be ignored.

Whereas, we are aware that we are facing a group where all are not for nor all against us in both groups. Some of the white group are working long hours with the best legal advice against us. We must follow their example to match them.

II. That we will back up the N.A.A.C.P. with finance and to encourage every church member to join.

III. We must note that we are called on to fight on many fronts. We recommend our going in with group in advised places.

IV. That each pastor will encourage members to exercise their Citizenship when they become voting age.

V. That this Association will put a Committee on Correspondence to work to keep us informed as to what is being done, and the best methods of keeping peace and good Christian attitude during these times.

Note—This Committee has no power to act nor speak for us. They are merely our informers. They are to keep all of our bodies informed.

VI. We recommend that we cease to send out ill advised publicity which merely antagonize and does not help with the problem.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

As usual, the Wednesday evening Session was conducted by the Woman's Auxiliary, with Mrs. M. N. Perry in charge. For this occasion, the Reverend J. B. Crandell brought the message. He brought the body a very inspiring message.

THURSDAY MORNING

The Thursday Morning Session of the Wake Baptist Association opened at 10:00 A.M. with the continuation of our Associational Theme. The Reverend Watkins discussed his theme under three heads. Wednesday Morning he used the phase, "The Problem of Human Existance;" Wednesday afternoon he used the phase, "The Problem of Human Relationships" and Thursday Morning he used the phase, "The Problem of Human Destiny." Under this topic Prother Watkins, attempted to set forth the idea of our existence: What is our destiny; How does man fit in God's total program? He concluded that man does have a purpose in God's affairs, that man is struggling towards a goal, that God made man for himself, and man is not satisfied until that Godward part is satisfied with his Creator.

Without a doubt, Reverend Watkins brought us a through and a well prepared series of lectures. Several persons mentioned their appreciation to Reverend Watkins for the Association for such a splendid lecture.

The feautre speaker for our Association was the Reverend O. L. Sherrill, the Executive Secretary of the General Baptist State Convention. Reverend Sherrill came before the body and thanked the Association for its support to Foreign Mission, State Mission and Shaw University and asked for the continued support of the Association.

Reverend Sherrill then announced his text from II Samuel 22:30. "For by thee I have run through a troop; by my God have I leaped over a wall." The speaker said that David didn't get over by using deceptive methods. Further he stated that David didn't get over by fighting back at his enemies. Then the speaker suggested ways how David got over: 1. David got over by taking self out of the picture. 2. David got over by putting into practice what is right. 3. If we want to get over we must all work toward a common goal. Reverend Sherrill delivered a grand message. Several selections were sung such as "Amazing Grace," and "Thank You Jesus." The offering was lifted by the Reveend A. M. Wiggins and Reverend A. M. Wiggins and Reverend C. H. Heath.

The new minister and visiting friends were presented. The Benediction was pronounced by broher Lemuel Mial.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session opened with devotionals conducted by the Sisters of the Auxiliary. A very warm service was enjoyed by all.

After the devotionals, the Reverend J. W. Jones, Moderator of the Johnston Association was our speaker. Reverend Jones is one of our senior ministers and at one time was a leading minister in the Wake Association. Reverend Jones made some preliminary remarks, one things he stated that today was his seventy-fifth birthday. The speaker chose for his text Revelation 1:18. "I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold I am alive forever more, Amen and have the keys of hell and death." "The Power of the Resurrection" was Reverend Jones' topic. The speaker said we are not to despise small things but are to use what God has given us. Reverend Jones gave us an inspiring message on the Glorified Christ. Through the power of God He was able to conquer every foe. After the sermon, Mrs. Leathers led in singing "When My was like a revival when the service was over. Every one en- Soul Is Resting in the Presence of the Lord." The Association joyed the message brought by Reverend Jones.

The rest of our reports were given at this time. Our Association adjourned to meet in its next Annual Session with the Pilot Baptist Church in August, 1958.

The Benediction was given by the Reverend Carl Morgan.

NOTE

Because of the lack of facilities the Woman's Auxiliary did not meet in a separate session. Their Financial Report is herewith submitted.

EXTRA-SESSION OF THE WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Garner, North Carolina
March 30, 1958

The Extra-Session of the Wake Baptist Association was held with the Wake Baptist Grove as host church. Instead of meeting in the church auditorium, we met in the Garner Consolidated School Building, Mr. C. A. Marriott, principal.

After the local Sunday School was concluded, Mrs. Mammie N. Perry, the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, presided. She read for the Scripture, sixteen verses of the 24th Chapter of Luke. The Reverend T. B. Smith offered the prayer. In her introductory remarks, Mrs. Perry stated that this had been a long hard winter but she was thankful to God for meeting the various circles in our bounds. She said this was not only a fifth Sunday, but it was also Palm Sunday which should have added meaning to us. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung and expressions from several of the sisters. Mrs. L. W. Williams, our scheduled speaker, was not able to be with us because of death in her family.

Warm words of welcome were given to us by the Reverend C. A. Marriott, principal of the school. He said that he was happy to cooperate with the Association in offering the facilities of the school to the group.

Moderator Stokes, asked the Choir of Olive Branch Baptist Church to furnish music for the occasion. They did so while their pastor, the Reverend S. L. Suitt, brought the sermon. The speaker developed the idea taken from the occasion of the disciples going to Jerusalem. The text was: "Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest." Mark 11:12. The speaker pointed out that as disciples of Christ, we must go beyond Sunday School Revival. We must not be afraid. As Christians we must be the standard barriers for the Cause. We must teach our members to be loyal to the cause. The prayer was offered by Reverend A. M. Wiggins. Reverend Suitt brought the body a good message.

An offering was the next thing to claim our attention. The Finance Committee was ordered in Session. See Report.

Adjournment and Dinner.

The Association reconvened at 2:00 P.M. with singing led by the Reverend Boone of Tupper Memorial Baptist Church. He also offered the prayer and finally led in singing "Leaning on the Everlasting Arm."

The Junior Choir of Oberlin Baptist Church gave us several selections and Dr. Grady D. Davis brought us the message. He selected his text from Revelations 21:1. "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea." The speaker mentioned two points: 1. A New Earth; 2. A New Heaven. Brother Davis' theme was "A Vision of a New Earth." He said there is a great revolution taking place in our world; scientific, social. Dr. Davis brought the Association a great message. Everyone was uplifted.

Dr. Nelson H. Harris was presented to the Association. He spoke briefly in his own behalf. He is running for a seat in the State Legislature.

Reverend John Flemming also made remarks.

Reverend Boone gave us the Benediction.
